

The VieSci Postdoc Network of the Faculty of Life Sciences has recently been established to interconnect postdocs across departments and to improve the information flow between you and your university!

Objectives

- Facilitate communication between postdocs from different departments
- Build a website to provide helpful information & increase postdoc visibility
- Organize networking events to promote collaboration
- Advocate postdoc needs & interests directly to the Faculty

Check out our website:

Je vois la Vie en Sciences!